ALL STAR STILTS

All Star Stilts and Comedy provides a triumvirate of talent from three bay area improvisers. All graduates of Bay Area Theatresports, together they have over 50 years of experience making comedy up on the spot. Whether they are on the ground doing walk about entertainment, up on stilts providing almost 30 feet of visual spectacle, or on stage in a individually tailored presentation All Star Stilts & Comedy is sure to make your event a one of kind experience. The core ensemble is composed of Steven Bass (a veteran performer with Antenna Theater and Entree to Murder) Simon Hanson (1997 International Improvisation Competition finalist) and Lawrence Wolf (founder of Start Trekin – an improvised parody of Star Trek). The ensemble, trained in the art of event entertainment by Fratelli Bologna, specializes in using improvisational theater techniques to incorporate specific information about your company into larger than life characters. All Star Stilt have performed for clients as diverse as Microsoft, to the US Postal Service. Characters have included (but is not limited to) Blues Musicians. Santa's Elves, Punk Rock Stars, Office Workers Keystone Cops and Academic experts (on any subject-including your company!).
