Boca do Rio

Boca do Rio captures the spirit and sounds of Brazil in an electrifying trio that combines a soulful voice, bittersweet guitar, swinging bossa nova beats, and a vibrantly expressive saxophone. Put together and led by vocalist/guitarist Kevin Welch, Boca do Rio digs deep into the soulful sounds of hot tropical nights. Pulling from a wide repertoire of sambas, bossa novas, and originals, Boca do Rio creates soundscapes of the world's most rhythmically beautiful music. The songs are sung in Portuguese while the universal sentiments of love and a tropical life roam freely through the music. Boca do Rio performs compositions by such well known Brazilian luminaries as Antonio Carlos Jobim, Joao Gilberto, Caetano Veloso as well as original music. The group has the ability to cater to a wide range of moods and emotions - from the romanticism of a ballad to the irresistible rhythm of a samba. A typical night might include a quiet, mellow set during dinner and then a dance set when everyone is ready to kick up their heels. Boca do Rio continues to breathe life into a style of music that first had its international impact during the early 1960s, when bossa nova arrived in the US. Reminiscent of the classic Getz/Gilberto sessions, Boca do Rio combines the soulful Brazilian sound with the rhythm of life in the Bay Area at the turn of the century. The band plays regularly at Eastside West, Cafe Niebaum Coppola, Butterfly SF, and many private and corporate events. Boca do Rio is a great band to dance to or just set a lively mood.
