Escola De Samba Acadêmicos da Estrada Real

Artistic directors Josephine Morada and Rudy Ortiz invite audiences to travel the 'royal road' as Escola de Samba Estrada Real celebrates the traditions of Rio de Janeiro's carnival. Formerly Escola Nova de Samba, this dance and drum ensemble has been promoting and perpetuating the art of Rio de Janeiro's carnival and the celebration of San Francisco's own carnival since 1983. The 10 member ensemble, led by choreographer/director Morada and music/bateria director Ortiz, is well versed in many styles of Brazilian music and dance including samba enredo, samba batucada, maracatú, timbalada, afoxê, samba reggae, and it's own creation of a Brazilian/world beat rhythm. At your next event let Estrada Real's performers take you on a trip to Rio de Janeiro's carnival.
