

HypnoTWIST

HypnoTWIST: Tonight your special guest is world-renowned Hypnotist Ivan Lendl (not the tennis player), just back from an international concert tour of the Acropolis and the Kremlin Palace...

Watch in anticipation as he chooses three volunteers from among your own guests!

Watch in delight as he transforms them into rock singers, opera stars, dancers, comedians and more!

Why book a hypnotist for your next function - go one better and book Hypno TWIST, the latest hoax act from the creators of The Three Waiters! By the time your guests realize that not only is this Ivan Lendl “not the tennis player”, but also not a Hypnotist, and that the “guests” he has Hypnotised are not guests either, but professional actors, and that you’ve all been had by HypnoTWIST, they’ll be having too much fun to care...

HypnoTWIST is the latest incredible offering from the award winning creative team of The Three Waiters. Like The Three Waiters, HypnoTWIST is designed to fit seamlessly within the flow of your event; to enhance but never interrupt...and to keep the focus where it belongs: on your message, your guests, and you.
